WE ARE A CAF,
NOT A CAFE,
NOT A SHOP,
NOT A BRANCH,
NOT A RESTAURANT
JUST A CAF.

At the beginning of the millennium my best friend (now sister-in-law) and I used to eat here when it was small deli called Cafe Delizia. In 2005, before Twitter and avocado on toast were a thing, we bought the place off Mauro, the Italian owner, painted the front egg yolk yellow and filled it with junk from our 1980s childhood bedrooms. Welcome to The Breakfast Club on D'Arblay Street. Our original little yellow caf in Soho. She means the world to us. Wherever in the world you've come from, thank you so much for eating and drinking with us. We hope we've lived up to our original plan - good home cooked food with an arms wide open welcome.

Sincerely yours, Jonathan and Ali

EVERYONE IS WELCOME.

3 words that mean the world to us. Bring your gran, your dad, bring the girls, bring the boys, bring your eccentric Uncle Colin, bring everyone! We are your friendly, arms wide open, 'come here! give me a hug' neighbourhood caf. Our award-winning communities programme 'Good Day' serves to provide a safe and welcoming space for local community groups to meet, eat, drink & more in the company of our wonderful team. Whether it's our regular pensioner meet ups in Islington, providing work opportunities for the homeless or throwing a big camp Christmas party for the older LGBTQ+ community in Battersea, we are extremely proud to host and work with some pretty wonderful people.
