Small but mighty, this is where it all began on D'Arbly Street in 2005. Gone are the days when we didn't even serve eggs. Believe it or not it, it didn't occur to us that a place called 'The Breakfast Club' would attract people looking for a fry-up, not just die-hard John Hughes fans. You'll still find a queue whatever day of the week, luckily you can beat it by booking this yellow beauty for yourself.
