INCLUDED in the best value drinks menu in London is 50p per drink/rack/bottle service charge. This is INCLUDED in the price listed on the menu. The price you see is the price you'll pay. Your £5 pint costs you £5. £4.50 for the pint, 50p for the team.

We could hide the service charge as a percentage somewhere on the bottom of the menu and surprise you with it at the end but we think this way is fairer.

We hope the team has shown you the hospitality you deserve but if they haven't this is optional and you do have a choice to take it off.
